13 - Onen-Air Fighting.

If you have fairly opened your eyes the enormous and priceless opportunit God has placed within your reach out of doors, it may be hoped that you will, at least, be found, whenever possible, at your post in the open air meeting and process sion. The mare commonness of this every day opportunity, and the large number of those who have, for a time, availed them selves of it is ant to have a very serious venetioners effort so that not a few field officers describe themselves as being left with yorr very little help to hear the brunt

One came at night and go her backslidings healed. The next hour we went to the daughter had got save the previous night; and whilst we wer speaking to her, her father and anothe speaking to hor, her father and another soning usus come in and we went right at them. The convert anzions for her father said, "Let us peay," as down we went, took hold of God and they were all praising Hin, when we lott. The uest person we met was another hackelides who said he would get right after Christmas, but he yielded at might. The next mas, nutries yielded at night. The nest we came seroes was a man who had been a local preacher who had lost his salva-tion but was brought under conviction by loaring Col. Dowdle playing hisfiddle and speaking on the market. Hegot down on his knees and after much prayer was glo riously, saved. All those converts have since come to the meetings and testified, and marched and will make good soldlers. Another man that we met has and matched and will make goodlars. Another man that we met has since come to the mechage and got saved, glory, to God. Numbero are under convicting. We are believing for them. Of course we are beautifully saved ourselves.

TORONTO, IV. (Yorkville.) Capt Knight. Good meetings during the pas week.
